

The correct order of these sentences is.....

- a) This leads to melting ice caps and rising sea levels.
- b) Consequently, ecosystems are disrupted worldwide.
- c) Human activities, such as burning fossil fuels, increase greenhouse gases.
- d) For instance, polar bears lose their natural habitats.

- ①) c-a-b-d ②) c-a-d-b ③) a-c-b-d ④) d-c-a-b

- a) "Why don't we help the old man?" suggested Ahmed.
- b) Then they carried the boxes together and became friends.
- c) Suddenly, an elderly man dropped his groceries nearby.
- d) At first, Omar refused, thinking he was too busy

- ①) c-a-d-b ②) a-c-d-b ③) d-a-c-b ④) c-d-a-b

- a) Finally, present your findings in a clear report.
- b) Identify a specific problem to investigate. Then, design a methodology for your study.
- c) Meanwhile, ensure your sources are reliable.
- d) For example, use surveys or experiments. After collecting data, analyze it using statistical tools.

- ①) b-d-c-a ②) c-d-a-b ③) c-a-b-d ④) a-d-c-b

- a) Steam engines were invented to improve transportation.
- b) As a result, factories multiplied and urbanisation expanded.
- c) Workers faced challenging conditions during this period.
- d) The Industrial Revolution began in Britain in the 18th century.

- ①) a-b-d-c ②) d-a-b-c ③) b-a-d-c ④) a-b-c-d

- a) Although many people fear sharks, they rarely attack humans.
- b) For instance, pollution destroys their feeding areas. Protecting sharks is essential for marine balance.
- c) Sharks play a crucial role in ocean ecosystems.
- d) However, they are now endangered due to human activities.

- ①) a-c-d-b ②) c-a-d-b ③) a-d-b-c- ④) c-d-a-b

1-Education & Future

- a-It teaches me about the human body, diseases, and treatments.
- b-Other subjects like chemistry are also helpful, but biology is the foundation.
- c-For my future career in medicine, biology is the most important subject.
- d-Without understanding biology, studying medicine would be impossible.

- a-DACB b-ABCD c-CADB d-BCDA

2. University in Syria vs. Abroad:

- a-Studying in Syria is cheaper and lets me stay close to family.
- b-In Syria, I understand the system better. It's a difficult choice with good points on both sides.
- c-Studying abroad gives wider exposure but can be lonely.
- d-However, universities abroad often have better facilities and more resources.

a-CADB b- BCDA c-DCAB d-ACDB.

3. Baccalaureate exam:

- a-Not all students perform well under such pressure. Some might be talented but bad at exams.
- b-However, it is the standard system we have now, so we must prepare well.
- c-The Baccalaureate exam is very stressful and tests mostly memorization.
- d-Continuous assessment (like projects and classwork) could be fairer.

a-CADA b-DABC c-BCDA d-ACDB

4. Most useful school skill:

- a-It helps me solve problems in daily life, not just in studies.
- b-For example, I can analyze information online before believing it.
- c-It also helps me make better decisions. This skill is valuable everywhere.
- d-The most useful skill I learned in school is critical thinking.

a-CDAB b-DABC c-BCDA d-ACDB

5. Dream university major:

- a-My dream major is Computer Engineering. I love technology and how computers work.
- b-This field offers good job opportunities locally and internationally.
- c-I enjoy solving technical problems, so it fits my interests perfectly.
- d-Syria needs skilled engineers to rebuild and develop.

a-CDAB b-DCBA c-ADBC D-BCDA

6. Social media: Connection or Isolation?

- a-We share news and support each other.
- b-However, spending too much time scrolling can make me feel lonely in real life.
- c-Social media helps me stay in touch with friends and family, especially those far away.
- d-Sometimes I see friends online but don't meet them. It's a useful tool, but we need balance.

a-BCDA b-CABD c-DABC d-ADCB

7. Smartphones in class:

- a-We can access dictionaries, educational apps, and online resources instantly.
- b-Rules are needed to use them for learning only.
- c-Smartphones can be excellent learning tools if used correctly.
- d-Teachers can share links quickly. However, phones can also be a big distraction with games and messages.

a-CDAB b-DCAB c-BACD d-ADCB

8. Impact of video games:

- a-Positively, they improve hand-eye coordination, problem-solving skills, and teamwork in multiplayer games.
- b-Video games can have both positive and negative effects.
- c-Negatively, playing for hours can harm eyesight, reduce study time, and cause isolation.
- d-Moderation and choosing educational games are key.

a-DBCA b-BCAD c-BACD d-ADCB

9. Internet & learning English:

- a-I can watch YouTube lessons, practice with language apps like Duolingo,
- b-and listen to podcasts anytime. I chat with English speakers online and find millions of articles to read.
- c-Finally, it's much easier and more fun than just using textbooks.
- d-The internet has revolutionized how I learn English.

a-CABD b-DABC c-DCBA d-DBAC

10. Society & Daily Life Youth building Syria's future:

- a-We bring new ideas, energy, and tech skills. We can work in education,
- b-Young people are crucial for rebuilding Syria's future.
- c-technology, healthcare, and business. By studying hard, staying positive,
- d-and helping our communities now, we prepare to lead tomorrow because our role is vital.

a-BACD b-BCDA c-BDAC d-DBCA

11. Importance of volunteering:

- a-Volunteering in our community is very important.
- b-It also teaches us responsibility, teamwork, and new skills.
- c-Volunteering makes our town a better place and gives us a sense of purpose, even small actions make a difference.
- d-It helps people in need, like orphans or the elderly.

a-ADBC b-CDAB c-ABDC d-DCAB

12. Traditional Syrian values:

- a-Even in a modern world, these values give us identity and strength.
- b-To sum up, we should preserve them but also embracing useful modern ideas.
- c-Traditional Syrian values like family closeness, respect for elders, and generous hospitality are still very important.
- d-They teach us kindness and community.

a-DCAB b-BCDA c-CADB d-ADCB

13. Biggest challenge for young Syrians:

- a-Staying hopeful and developing practical skills,
- b-The biggest challenge facing young Syrians today is finding good opportunities after graduation.
- c-like languages or IT, can help overcome this challenge.
- d-Many struggle to find jobs matching their education. Limited university spots and resources add pressure.

a-BDAC b-BCAD c-ABCD d-CDAB

14. Celebrating a Syrian festival:

- a-Families wear new clothes and visit relatives early in the morning.
- b-Children receive gifts or money ('Eidiyeh'). We eat special sweets like 'Ma'amoul'.
- c-The streets are full of people greeting each other warmly. It's a time of happiness and community.
- d-In my city, we celebrate Eid al-Fitr with great joy.

a-CDAB b-DABC c-DBAC d-CDAB

15.Environment & Health, Students protecting the environment:

- a-We should recycle paper, plastic, and glass whenever possible.
- b-Students in Syria can help the environment in simple ways.
- c-Finally, turning off lights saves electricity, so every small action counts!
- d-Also saving water by taking shorter showers is vital. Planting trees at school or home makes a difference.

a-BADC b-BDCA c-ACBD d-CDAB

16. Clean water importance:

- a-especially in dry areas. We can conserve by fixing leaks,
- b-using water-saving devices, and not wasting it.
- c-Protecting rivers from pollution is also crucial. Everyone must help secure this precious resource.
- d-Clean water is essential for life, health, and agriculture. In Syria, water conservation is critical,

a-CABD b-DABC c-DBCA d-BCDA

17. Healthy eating for students:

- a-Then pack fruits or nuts instead of chips for snacks.
- b-Busy students need healthy eating habits for energy and focus. Start with a good breakfast like eggs or labneh.
- c-Finally, preparing simple meals saves time and health.
- d-Also drink plenty of water, not just sugary drinks and try to include vegetables in lunch.

a-BADC b-BDCA c-CDAB d-ACDB

18. Exercise & mental health:

- a-Activities like walking, football, or even dancing reduce stress and 19. anxiety.
- b-Exercise releases 'endorphins' which make you feel happier. It improves sleep and concentration.
- c-Just 30 minutes a day helps a lot.
- d-Regular exercise isn't just for physical health; it greatly benefits mental health too.

a-DABC b-ABCD c-BACD d-CABD

19. Dealing with exam stress:

- a-Take short breaks every hour to relax and get enough sleep, especially before the exam.
- b-Also deep breathing helps calm nerves.
- c-To manage exam stress, planning is key and make a realistic study schedule weeks before.
- d-Remember, your worth isn't defined by one exam result!

a-CABD b-CBDA c-DABC d-BDCA

20. Learning about cultures:

- a-We understand that people have different traditions, foods, and values, and that's okay.
- b-Learning about different cultures is very important. It broadens our minds and teaches us tolerance.
- c-It helps us communicate better in our global world.
- d-Respecting diversity makes society stronger.

a-BACD b-BDCA c-ABCD d-CDAB

21. A worrying global issue:

- a-Everyone, including governments and individuals, must act urgently to reduce pollution and protect our planet.
- b-The global issue that worries me most is climate change.
- c-We see its effects in Syria with hotter summers and water shortages.
- d-It causes extreme weather, harming agriculture and people worldwide.

a-BCDA b-ADCB c-CDAB d-DABC

22. Pros and cons of globalization:

- a-access to products worldwide, and sharing ideas/cultures.
- b-Negatives include the loss of some local traditions and businesses struggling against big international companies.
- c-It also spreads problems like financial crises quickly, therefore, balance is needed.
- d-Globalization has pros and cons. Positives include easier communication,

a-DABC b-ADCB c-BDCA d-CDAB

23. Book/Movie changing perspective:

- a-It showed me the power of never giving up, even when facing extreme hardship.
- b-The movie 'The Pursuit of Happyness' changed my perspective.
- c-The father's determination to build a better life for his son was inspiring.
- d-It taught me that hard work and hope can overcome big obstacles.

a-BACD b-ADCB c-ABDC d-DBCA

24. Qualities of a true friend:

- a-Second, loyalty means they stand by you in good and bad times.
- b-A true friend has several key qualities. First, honesty is crucial – they tell you the truth kindly.
- c-Finally, a good listener and someone who supports your growth is a real friend.
- d-Also, trustworthiness means you can share secrets safely.

a-BADC

b-DACB

c-BCDA

d-CDAB

25. My 5-year goals:

- a-Alongside studies, I want to improve my English and learn coding basics.
- b-Finally, I plan to gain practical experience through internships. I will work hard to achieve these steps.
- c-My goals for the next five years are clear. First, I will graduate from high school successfully.
- d-Then, I aim to get accepted into a good university engineering program.

a-DCAB

b-CDAB

c-ADCB

d-CADB

